TrueCore does not endorse any of the vehicles for sale in conjunction with the Car Bazaar, make any representations as to their condition, or take part in any negotiations for the sale. Sellers can choose to remain with their vehicle, or leave it locked for viewing and pick it up later. TrueCore assumes no liability for damages, lost or stolen items, or for injury. Both buyers and sellers are urged to be honest, ethical, and prudent in any dealings. Bring a valid driver's license and insurance card if you plan to allow test drives or hope to test drive an auto. Test drives are permissible at the seller's discretion only. There is no obligation to finance with TrueCore.
